School Fair

March 23, 1917 marked the closing of two successful terms of school at Liberty, taught by Prof. Caldwell and Brand School taught by Mrs. Caldwell.

The two Schools together with Pleasant View School taught by Mr. Bowman, and a large number of patrons spent the day at Brand.

The morning was taken up in what the teachers were pleased to call a School Fair. Each School brought exhibits of their years work, consisting of drawings, penmanship and language work. There was more than 300 drawings on exhibit.

It was a remarkable display of art for rural School Children.

A basket dinner was served at noon by the ladies.

In the afternoon a fine program was rendered, consisting of songs, recitations and readings. Much of the program was original. The prophecy written by Grant Wortman age 12 years and the goodbye song composed by Irene Nowlin age 11 years are worthy of special mention.

After the program Prof. Caldwell made an interesting talk on the advantages and disadvantages of the rural Schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell have taught good schools and the patrons are well pleased with the progress their children have made, each grade has covered the allotted territory and did their work thoroughly.

Easter Cards, Cardies and specialties.

Fairview Pharmacy.

LOCAL

I will be in Mills Saturday March 31st. with Headquarters at Hotel Lebert. There I will be prepared to do all classes of commercial photography and modern High Grade Home portraits upon appointment.

Paul F. Westphal, of Mills called Tuesday to have his paper changed from Haskell, Tex. back to Mills again as he will farm his claim this summer.

Earnest Leatherman has had a serious case of Measels the past week and has been isolated from the rest of the populace. He is recovering.

Wallace Chadderdon, conceded the handsomest man in Mills the past five years, orders his S-A, sent to Acra, New York in future.

Dr. Edwards writes the Abernathys from Omaha complaining at the S-A. because it has not reported more moisture. He wanted to come and plant a crop this season and is impatient.

We insist that we have reported snow at Taos, mud in Kentucky and blizzards in Iowa in order to meet the demands of fastidious readers and have even published Polaskie's predictions but - darn it - we can't make it rain.

Jess Davenport is having bills printed advertising the big Belgian Stallion owned by a company of farmers in this vicinity. We have ordered a special cut of this horse and several others to replace the fine line of stock cuts destroyed by the fire last year and are better prepared than ever before to print bills for Stallions and Jacks. We solicit your bill work. We have made a specialty of this class of advertising for many years in this and other states and know how to suit you.

Mr. De Pew has been working on a well at his claim the past two weeks. He tried drilling a new well but the sand and water was so strong he could not control it. He has cleaned out his old well and walled it in at the bottom, arched it over and filled it in so that it will never again need fixing.

Fred Fluhman was in town Saturday in his Buick. It is only a 40 minute drive now for him to come to town.
